JOB DESCRIPTION – RELIEF FEMALE SUPPORT WORKER

Trauma Informed Service: Preston

Hours: Zero hours, as required

Responsible to: Team Leader, Senior Service Manager and Complex Care Team

About the Service:

The Trauma Informed Care Service will provide three single bespoke adapted supported living services in the Ingol area of Preston for women over 18 with learning disabilities, autism and mental health needs with trauma histories.

The service will offer an empowering model of support which enables people to lead fulfilling and valued lives, maintain their tenancies, participate in their local community, develop independent living skills and achieve their personal goals and desired outcomes.

The women accepted into the service have been identified through the Transforming Care Agenda as women moving out of long stay institutions who display behaviour which challenges services. The individuals we support can experience a fear of abandonment and rejection which can lead to emotional instability, suicidal thoughts and high risk behaviours such as self-harm. The service will support women to manage their acute mental distress and support them to achieve real control over their care and support to prevent re-admission to hospital and maintenance of their homes in the community.

Due to the development of the service all staff members recruited will initially be required to work dynamically between the Registered Office and across two inpatient settings to ensure the smooth development of the service and excellent transitions of service users until all three homes have opened. The Registered Office building will be available at the onset based at Creative Support's Space Centre in Preston.

About You:

- Above all you will be warm, compassionate and caring
- You will enjoy supporting people to live their best life
- You will be a great communicator
- You will be physically and mentally resilient due to the nature of the work
- You will enjoy seeing women flourish when true care and compassion is shown in all aspects of their lives from cooking or baking, keeping their home and meeting personal care needs as well as meeting unique personal goals.
- You will be happy working in a consistent, predictable way, enjoying a calm and quiet environment that meets individual's needs.
- You will be observant and pay great attention to detail
- You will have copious amount of compassion
- You will be an excellent team player

About Your Knowledge and Experience:

- You will have experience working with individuals with learning disabilities, autism and those with traumatic histories
- You will be a great communicator, patient and sensitive
- You will be keen to understand the potential impact of trauma on behaviour including impulsive behaviour, mood, emotional instability, suicidal thoughts and self-harm, acute mental distress and impairment of social and psychological functioning

- You will understand the importance of care, compassion, communication, courage, competence and commitment

Main Responsibilities/Duties

1. To develop and sustain warm and trusting relationships with service users.
2. To promote the self-esteem, happiness and emotional health of service users.
3. To develop warm and trusting relationships with service users and to encourage them to communicate their needs, preferences and concerns. To promote self-esteem and confidence through the use of positive feedback and encouragement.
4. To respect the service user's right to privacy and to ensure that their dignity is maintained at all times.
5. To promote the happiness, welfare and general well being of service users through a warm, sensitive and person centred approach.
6. To offer support and reassurance to service users who may be anxious, distressed or disorientated. To encourage orientation in time and place. To support service users to communicate their needs through verbal and non verbal communication.
7. To support service users in enjoying a good intake of food and refreshments whilst at the Centre and the Community Hub by ensuring that they are relaxed, comfortable and provided with choices which meet their dietary needs and preferences. To support service users to make healthy food choices and to enjoy a varied and nutritional diet, including fruit and vegetables.
8. To support service users to access a wide range of interesting and stimulating activities, both within the centre and the wider community, building on their preferences and interests. To ensure that activities are enjoyable and inclusive, enabling people with a range of needs and abilities to take part.
9. To contribute to the organisation and running of the organisation and facilitation of activity groups for service users, ensuring a wide choice of age, gender and culturally appropriate activities.
10. To provide sensitive and respectful support for service users in respect of their personal care needs (including bathing, using the toilet etc).
11. To liaise with the families of service users and keep them informed of the progress of service users. To report any concerns from families regarding service users to the senior member of staff on duty.
12. To enable service users to maintain their daily living and social skills for as long as possible through supporting people to use these skills whilst at the Centre and the Community Hub.
13. To support service users in meeting their cultural and spiritual needs and in expressing their personal identity.
14. To promote the health and wellbeing of service users through exercise, relaxation and diet.

15. To monitor the wellbeing and general mental and physical health of service users and to report any concerns regarding the health and welfare of service users to the senior member of staff on duty.
16. To take appropriate action in the event of accidents, incidents and emergencies, ensuring that the senior member of staff is informed promptly.
17. To follow health and safety guidelines carefully and to alert the senior member of staff on duty immediately of any concerns in relation to health and safety issues.
18. To ensure that accurate records are kept in the prescribed format. To document all work undertaken in support of service users, their general progress, any concerns and any communication or liaison with other agencies.
19. To ensure that all financial transactions relating to the project or service users are promptly and accurately recorded within the agreed guidelines.
20. To keep the Centre and the Community Hub in a clean, safe and comfortable condition at all times.
21. To follow the guidance and risk management strategies outlined in the individual's risk management plan. To work in a safe and responsible manner to safeguard vulnerable service users from harm whilst ensuring they are able to make choices, enjoy new experiences and live a full life.
