JOB DESCRIPTION –TEAM LEADER

Warrington Services

Hours: 37.5 hours per week, to be worked flexibly, including occasional evenings and weekends, according to the needs of the service and service users.

Responsible to: Project Manager, Service Director and other senior colleagues.

The Role:

As a Team Leader, you will be working alongside and deputising for the service-based Project Manager.

You will work with the managers to ensure that our services are delivered efficiently and effectively and meet all contract requirements, quality standards, outputs and outcomes.

Main Duties:

1. To communicate and reinforce the person-centred philosophy and recovery model of the Mental Health Recovery Service Model. To promote hope, resilience and openness to change. To ensure that staff understand, and are committed to, the values and expected outcomes of the service and the contract specifications.
2. To ensure that staff, students and volunteers develop and sustain warm, trusting and respectful relationships with the people we support, offer unconditional positive regard and respect their right to privacy and confidentiality. To promote the self-esteem, happiness, and welfare of the people we support at all times.
3. Work with the Managers, to support the development and delivery of a high quality programme of recovery support sessions, meaningful activities and social groups which are to be co-produced with service users. To ensure that the recovery sessions support people to build on their strengths and make sense of their lived experiences, enabling people to take control, feel hopeful and become experts in their own recovery.
4. To support the managers and the staff team in maintaining positive relationships with stakeholders and ensure that the service maintains a positive profile and reputation. To promote the service effectively to external referrers and agencies and to ensure that all referrals and enquiries are followed up efficiently in a helpful and professional manner. To ensure that staff and volunteers are very welcoming and provide excellent customer care.
5. To ensure that literature describing the service and the recovery programme is attractive, widely circulated and kept up to date. To provide promotional materials in a range of accessible formats as required.
6. To ensure that an outcome-focused and personalised recovery support plan is devised and co-produced in response to the identified needs, preferences and aspirations of individuals, building on their strengths, assets and community connections. To agree a personalised programme of support, interventions, recovery sessions and activities to meet these needs. To fully involve the service user and members of their support network in developing their plan.
7. To ensure that an up-to-date risk assessment and risk management plan is in place for each service user and to ensure that staff are aware of any risk management guidelines.

- To ensure that each person is allocated a Key Worker to devise and co-ordinate their recovery programme. To take account of gender preferences when allocating staff to work with service users.
 - To ensure that one-to-one goal planning and personalised recovery support is planned and delivered at regular intervals according to service user needs and preferences and to maximise positive engagement with the service and the achievement of desired outcomes.
8. To ensure that person-centred recovery reviews are carried out on a 6 monthly. To utilise the review process to adjust planned support as people become more independent and have built up informal support networks and community links.
 9. To monitor and follow up the progress of service users on move on from the service over a 2/3 week period to support and evaluate whether recovery is sustained. To signpost to other services if required.
 10. To support in the recruitment and induction of new staff and volunteers as vacancies arise with the involvement of service users.
 11. To manage the performance of staff by providing supervision, coaching, direct observations of practice and periodic appraisals. To ensure that all staff (including regular bank/relief staff) have a named supervisor.
 12. To ensure that staff training needs are identified and met, and all training undertaken is recorded within supervision files and the training matrix.
 13. To ensure that staff maintain up-to-date electronic records and individual case files in the prescribed format and that all reviews and meetings are minuted and recorded. To ensure that records are completed to a high standard and that confidentiality and data protection is observed at all times. To ensure that progress is captured and celebrated.
 14. To organise monthly team meetings and to ensure that staff are well-briefed in all matters relating to policy, good practice, contract delivery and organisational requirements. To promote the full attendance and active participation of all staff (including part time and relief staff) in these meetings.
 15. To organise monthly tenants meetings and encourage attendance. Encourage participation and inclusion of service users ensuring they have a voice in the delivery and development of the service.
 16. To report and manage accidents, incidents, safeguarding and emergencies in accordance with Creative Support requirements and agreed multi-agency reporting guidelines.
 17. Support the operational day to day management of the service and building.
 18. To provide excellent internal and external customer care. To respond warmly and professionally to all enquiries and to reply efficiently to emails and written requests for information. To ensure that the people we support are aware of the Complaints Policy and are supported to make complaints and suggestions. To acknowledge, record, and proactively follow up all complaints, concerns, compliments and suggestions from service users, their families, partner agencies and stakeholders. To ensure that service users have access to independent sources of advice, advocacy and representation, as required.

19. To implement and comply with Creative Support's Equal Opportunities Policies. To ensure that the service provided is sensitive to the cultural and religious needs of service users and staff alike. To promote cultural sensitivity and anti-discriminatory practice.
20. To develop and maintain positive relationships with partner agencies and professionals and to contribute to wider strategic objectives through effective joint working. To promote a culture of collaborative working and to sustain productive and mutually respectful partnerships with the Lead Contractors and other stakeholders.
21. To assist in leading the process of co-ordinating referrals for the service including attendance at allocation panel meetings.
22. Assist in the development and running of out of hour's provision and new service opportunities.
23. To ensure thorough auditing of files is carried out on a monthly basis.

Other Duties:

1. To notify your line manager of your planned whereabouts and to submit accurate timesheets weekly.
2. To provide regular verbal and written reports to colleagues.
3. To accept support, supervision and guidance from line managers and other senior managers.
4. To carry out all work in a manner consistent with the aims and philosophy of Creative Support and the MHRE service.
5. To comply with and to implement the Equal Opportunities Policy.
6. To maintain confidentiality and data protection at all times, in accordance with the agreed policies.
7. To identify training needs in discussion with your line manager and to attend training events and courses as required.
8. To observe any written policies, procedures and guidelines for good practice agreed by Creative Support.
9. Any other duties as required.

Following the probationary period, you will be expected to undertake Management training which may include Level 5 Diploma in Health & Social Care or equivalent.

Development Pathway

At Creative Support, we are committed to ensuring that all new staff feel welcomed, prepared and empowered as they begin their journey with us. We have a Development Pathway which has been designed to provide you with a structured and supportive induction programme. This combines practical orientation, core induction training, and a pathway towards future professional development opportunities.

Our development pathway will enable you to progress from entry-level roles to positions of senior leadership through tailored, structured, and values-led learning opportunities. By aligning with national strategies and our WE CARE framework, and embedding the principles of co-production, empowerment, and compassionate leadership, we aim to foster a workforce that is not only highly skilled, but motivated to make a meaningful difference to the lives of the people we support. Together, we are building a future where both staff and the people we support are enabled to live their best lives.

The pathway will empower you to develop yourself and your career by setting out how you can gain skills, access learning and development opportunities and progress in your career in a way that meets Creative Supports' strategic plan

Birthday Holiday Bonus:

After two years of continuous service you will be permanently entitled to one additional day (pro rata for part time employees) annual leave to be taken two weeks either side of your birth date. If you do not take this additional day within that period you will lose this entitlement for that year. This bonus will only come into effect in the leave year after two full years' service. Staff who are on maternity, paternity, adoption and sick leave at the time of their birthday will be entitled to take this additional leave upon their return to work.

Disclosure Checks:

All appointments will be subject to DBS enhanced disclosure and ISA checks.

Probationary Period:

The first four months will constitute a probationary period. When this is successfully completed, employment will be confirmed.

Sickness Policy:

Creative Support operates a discretionary company sick pay benefit scheme which is for the purposes of preventing hardship during times of serious illness. The eligibility criteria and conditions for payment of Company Sick Pay (inclusive of SSP) are shown in the Employee Handbook. You may be eligible for Company Sick Pay benefits subject to compliance with these criteria as follows:
