2. To act as a point of contact for services for the creation and provision of suitable interview question sets for local interviews upon request. By adapting interview question master documents, you will provide role specific question sets by referring to the corresponding job description to adapt the master version of the document.
3. To liaise with services in regards to interview paperwork, logging successful and unsuccessful interview outcomes on the central database.
4. To build professional relationships with new starters and local managers to support candidates in their smooth and positive commencement of work within their service. This will include ensuring confirmations of start date and time with both the candidate and relevant senior within the project.
5. Ensure that every new starter you are responsible for is processed as efficiently as possible so as to achieve timely confirmed start dates.
6. To obtain pre-employment checks for all new starters relating to the services you are responsible for. These checks include reference requests, a full DBS (Disclosure and Barring Service) disclosure, health declarations and any further follow up or investigatory steps that are required such as missing information or reference authenticity.
7. To maintain accurate recordings of all day to day work progress for your caseload in the Caseload Activity Report and each new starter Summary of Works to evidence all actions taken.
8. To ensure and maintain excellent data protection and confidentiality standards at all times, both internally and externally, in accordance with the agreed organisational policy. To work in accordance with the framework for the Data Protection Act and the Payroll and Human Resources Departments to ensure that new starter information is accurate, secure, private and processed in accordance with due process and deadlines.

Other:

1. To attend recruitment related meetings with internal and external bodies and to provide department related support.
2. To provide helpful and friendly customer service as part of the Recruitment team. To represent the department in a positive, customer service focused manner by answering and responding to incoming telephone queries.
3. To ensure that any queries are dealt with in a professional manner and that any messages taken for colleagues are passed to the relevant staff member in full and with accurate detail.
