Relief Crisis Intervention Worker

Hours: Zero hours, relief basis

Responsible to: Service Manager

The Role

The Crisis Café, Talking Space has been set up to provide a safe place for people experiencing mental health or other social crises, in order to meet their needs and begin their recovery. This space will alleviate the demand on A&E departments offering a more suitable environment to de-escalate and recuperate. This unique role means you will be working closely with individuals who are experiencing episodes of psychological or emotional distress.

The main purpose of the role is to assist individuals through appropriate person centred interventions to be able to de-escalate their immediate crisis experience. Listening to individuals in a crisis will be a key aspect of your role and involves focusing, observing, understanding and responding with empathy, genuineness, respect, acceptance, non-judgment and sensitivity. Relevant specialist training will be offered in topics such as Suicide Prevention and Psychologically Informed Environments.

The Talking Space will operate out of our Northfield Hub, Thursday to Sunday from 6pm-11pm. A willingness to work flexibly according to the needs of the service is essential.

Main Responsibilities

- To support service users to create flexible and realistic crisis safety plans, offering guidance, reassurance and signposting to further services if and when they need them.
- To demonstrate understanding and empathy for service users; supporting individuals in a person-centred manner.
- To work in solution focussed manner in relation to problem solving and actively support the introduction of crisis intervention approaches.
- To research and maintain a good knowledge of the support available across the city from partner agencies, understanding how these may enhance individual's wellbeing and recovery; making referrals as appropriate.
- To work as part of a team of Crisis Intervention workers within the Talking Space environment, to demonstrate a good ability to work as part of a team, and have excellent interpersonal communication skills and abilities.
- To demonstrate the ability to deal effectively and calmly with challenging situations. To use motivational and intervention techniques to support service users to de-escalate crisis and achieve successful outcomes.
- To process new referrals to the Talking Space, carry out initial assessments and maintain accurate records as required.
- To respect the service user's right to privacy and to ensure that their dignity is maintained at all times.
- To help people develop self-management coping strategies and to increase knowledge of local resources, signposting or making referrals as required.

- To ensure that accurate electronic records are kept. To document all work undertaken in support of service users, their general progress, any concerns and any communication or liaison with other agencies.
- To respond quickly and appropriately to any safeguarding concerns in accordance with legal requirements and Creative Support's policies and procedures.
- To work within agreed risk management guidelines and to assist service users in reducing risks to themselves or others. To promptly report all concerns regarding risks to senior staff and relevant agencies.
- To provide activities on site that are engaging and of interest to those attending the Talking Space.
- To offer light refreshments and create a relaxed atmosphere.
- To notify your Line Manager of planned whereabouts and to submit accurate timesheets weekly.
- To accept regular support and supervision from your Line Manager.
- To carry out all work in a manner consistent with the aims of the service and the service principles adopted by Creative Support.
- To comply with legislation and Creative Support's Equal Opportunities Policy.
- To maintain confidentiality at all times, in accordance with both legislation and Creative Support's policies and procedures.
- To identify personal training needs in discussion with your Line Manager and to attend training events and courses as required.
- To observe any written policies, procedures and guidelines for good practice agreed by Creative Support.
- Any other reasonable duties as required.
