JOB DESCRIPTION –Welfare Rights and Appointeeship Officer

Head Office, Stockport

Hours: Full time hours (37.5 per week).

Accountable to: Head of Supported Housing and Financial Inclusion

Summary of the Job

The post holder will be responsible for the management of a caseload of DWP corporate appointeeships. These will be vulnerable adults unable to manage their own finances and whom require support to claim and manage DWP benefit claims. The post holder will ensure that all benefits are maximised and that the client has access to finances for the purpose of daily living costs, bills, activities and any other sundries.

The post holder will have some knowledge and preferably experience of working with the DWP benefits system and will be responsible for providing welfare rights and budgeting advice to all clients and support staff at Creative Support as and when required. This may include the delivery of corporate training to staff and clients or developing guidance documents and briefings.

The post holder should expect some national travel on occasion, visiting our services and offering advice, support and information to clients, staff within local offices and other relevant parties including (but not limited to) Social Workers and family members.

Support of Clients – Corporate Appointeeships

1. To act as a corporate appointee for a caseload of specified vulnerable clients and to follow the corporate Code of Conduct for Appointees at all times.
2. To ensure that all clients under appointeeship receive their full benefit entitlement and that any relevant changes in circumstances are reported to the appropriate benefit agency promptly to prevent any under / overpayments of benefits.
3. To make sure that as clients migrate to different benefits e.g. PIP, Universal Credit or Pension Credit, that claims are initiated and claimed promptly and correctly and that the client is not affected adversely by any negative decisions made by the DWP.
4. Where any benefit agency makes a decision that appears to be incorrect, an Officer should promptly follow the appropriate appeals process to ensure that we do everything to ensure the clients benefits remain maximised. This may include attending benefit tribunals.
5. To always manage corporate appointeeships in a person-centred way, which promotes the independence of the client as far as possible whilst acting in the best interests of the client. This will include visiting clients where appropriate and discussing their finances with them and other relevant parties.
6. To administer and monitor corporate appointee bank accounts, ensuring all financial arrangements are properly documented within agency guidelines. This will also involve liaising with our Relationship team at Barclays bank and using the online banking portal to set up standing orders and print off bank statements.

- 7. To ensure that all clients under appointeeship have access to money as and when required and that there is a budget in place for each person in order to ensure that there is money available for essential expenditure and that we have identified any disposable income.
- 8. To administer and monitor the use of our pre-pay card system for the purpose of clients accessing their weekly finances and sundries as necessary. This includes populating a monthly spreadsheet, checking requisitions and ensuring that the client has enough money on the pre-pay platform to facilitate access to the monies needed.
- 9. To ensure that all bills are set up by direct debit from the corporate bank account where possible but where paid by other methods to ensure this is done promptly to avoid additional charges or court summons for late payments.
- 10. To ensure that whenever a significant decision needs to be made in relation to the appointeeship and where the client does not have capacity to make this decision themselves that a best interest meeting will be held (which the post holder may be required to attend) and that the post holder follows the decision resulting from this meeting.
- 11. To ensure that with regards to large purchases, due consideration has been shown for value for money and taking into consideration the client's personal choices where appropriate.
- 12. To carry out (where appropriate) initial visits to potential new appointees and assess the need for this arrangement using agency guidelines. To use this visit to obtain all appropriate information including (but not limited to) name, address, national insurance number, landlord and any arrears information.
- 13. To carry out regular reviews of all appointeeships to make sure that there is still a need for the arrangement or if a relevant change has happened or if alternative arrangements could be put in place to ensure its viability.
- 14. To ensure that if and when an the appointeeship transfers to another organisation or individual that the new appointee has all the information that they require to take the appointeeship on and that we promptly transfer any savings to that representative and do not withhold the balance unnecessarily.
- 15. To be open, honest and accountable in all financial transactions and in accordance with corporate policy. This will involve working alongside the internal auditors who will monitor adherence to corporate policy.
- 16. To ensure that all clients under appointeeship have a Housing Benefit claim (where appropriate / necessary) and that any difficulties with these claims are monitored and resolved swiftly.
- 17. To ensure that were an appointee is not entitled to Housing Benefit for any reason that a standing order or direct debit is set up with the landlord to ensure payment of rent is prompt and correct and does not cause arrears to accrue. Where arrears have accrued, to ensure that efficient, effective payment arrangements are put in place.
- 18. To undertake the administration relating to motability cars including payment of initial payments and writing open insurance letters in order that support staff can drive the vehicles.

19. To monitor Care Charge Assessments to ensure that clients are not over / under charged in relation to the cost of their care and support. This should include making sure that all disability related expenditure has been taken into consideration and that any capital held by the client has been accurately declared.
20. Where relevant, to monitor household bank accounts set up for services where we act as corporate appointee for all clients who reside there. This includes making sure all clients are contributing an equal share towards the bills at the property and that bills are paid on time and with regards to utilities, that the bills are based on accurate readings and not estimates.

Support of Clients – General

21. To provide welfare benefits and budgeting advice to all Creative Support services when needed and regardless of whether the service has any appointees within it.
22. To support staff to maximise our clients income through the delivery of training, attendance at staff Team Meetings and advice to increase their awareness and knowledge of benefits available and to assist with difficult benefit claims and appeals.
23. To work with staff and clients to promote financial inclusion by providing support with avoiding and managing debt, setting up bank accounts etc. and to sign post clients in the direction of specialist advisors where appropriate.
24. To work with other departments to ensure that any clients who upon review may appear to lack capacity or need some support with their finances / benefits are offered relevant, appropriate support including where necessary an appointeeship.
25. To work with and support the Internal Audit Team to make sure any financial irregularities are reported and investigated.
26. To help develop and deliver drop in sessions regionally for staff and clients to attend with welfare rights or financial issues. To help develop and deliver budgeting training to our clients where appropriate.
27. To facilitate the purchase of items via the company client credit card, ensuring all financial procedures have been followed and documented. This includes ensuring that all recharges are paid fully by the client.

Other

28. To carry out all work in a manner consistent with the aims and ethos of Creative Support.
29. To maintain an honest, open and accountable system of record keeping, including the maintenance of diary notes on the internal Housing Database, saving pertinent emails and scanning important documents.
30. To take part in the Housing and Welfare Right's Team Shift Co-ordinator rota, dealing with enquiries for colleagues when they are not in the office.
31. To ensure the needs of the service are met which may include picking up new cases, swapping cases with a colleague or supporting with difficult cases.

- 32. To keep the Housing and Welfare Right's Team database up to date with all pertinent information.
- 33. To accept support, supervision and guidance from senior colleagues and line manager.
- 34. To notify line manager and Shift Co-ordinator of planned whereabouts when out of the office. This will include logging on and off at the start and end of the day.
- 35. To ensure that if anything is witnessed that is not felt to be appropriate that these concerns are reported to your line manager or relevant senior manager.
- 36. To monitor the condition of Creative Support properties whilst out on visits and ensure any concerns re the condition of the property are reported to the Property Services Team at Head Office.
- 37. To maintain confidentiality at all times, in accordance with the agreed policy.
- 38. To comply with and to implement Creative Support's Equal Opportunities Policy.
- 39. To observe any written policies, procedures and guidelines for good practice as agreed by Creative Support.
- 40. To identify training needs in discussion with line manager and to attend training events and courses as required.
- 41. Any other duties as required.
