Oxfordshire LD & MH Services

Hours: Part time hours. To be worked flexibly, according to the needs of the service, including evenings, sleep-ins, weekends and public holidays

Responsible to: Senior Support Worker

The Role:

To provide holistic person-centred support to individuals who have a primary diagnosis of a Learning Disability and additional mental health needs living in supported housing. Provide personalised care and support including practical and emotional stability. Identify and access opportunities for social inclusion whilst collaborating with service users, families, and other professionals involved to provide a consistent and coordinated service that meets the needs of all individuals.

Main Duties:

1. To support service users, their families / carers and other professionals on a daily basis ensuring a professional, positive and welcoming atmosphere at all times.
2. To develop warm and trusting relationships with service users and to encourage them to communicate their needs, preferences and concerns. To promote self-esteem and confidence through the use of positive feedback and encouragement.
3. To respect the service user's right to privacy and to ensure that their dignity is maintained at all times.
4. To promote the happiness, welfare and general well being of service users through a warm, sensitive and person-centred approach.
5. To offer support and reassurance to service users who may be anxious, distressed or disorientated. To encourage orientation in time and place. To support service users to communicate their needs through verbal and non-verbal communication.
6. To support service users to access a wide range of interesting and stimulating activities, both within their own home and out in the community which incorporates their preferences and interests. To ensure that activities are enjoyable and inclusive, enabling people with a range of needs and abilities to take part.
7. To provide sensitive and respectful support for service users in respect of their personal needs.
8. To liaise with the families of service users and keep them informed of the progress of service users. To report any concerns from families regarding service users to the senior member of staff on duty.
9. To support service users in meeting their cultural and spiritual needs and in expressing their personal identity.
10. To promote the health and wellbeing of service users through exercise, relaxation and diet.

11. To monitor the wellbeing and general mental and physical health of service users and to report any concerns regarding the health and welfare of service users to the senior member of staff on duty.
12. To assist service users in the medication administration and monitoring of prescribed medication in accordance with the service's medication policy.
13. To take appropriate action in the event of accidents, incidents and emergencies, ensuring that the senior member of staff is informed without delay.
14. To follow health and safety guidelines carefully and to alert the senior member of staff on duty immediately of any concerns in relation to health and safety issues.
15. To ensure that accurate records are kept in the prescribed format. To document all work undertaken in support of service users, their general progress, any concerns and any communication or liaison with other agencies.
16. To ensure that all financial transactions relating to the centre or service users are promptly and accurately recorded within the agreed guidelines.
17. To follow the guidance and risk management strategies outlined in the individual's risk management plan. To work in a safe and responsible manner to safeguard vulnerable service users from harm whilst ensuring they are able to make choices, enjoy new experiences and live a full life.

Other:

1. To accept regular support and supervision from your Line Manager.
2. To carry out all work in a manner consistent with the aims of the project and the philosophy and service principles of Creative Support.
3. To comply with Creative Support's Equal Opportunities Policy.
4. To maintain confidentiality at all times, in accordance with the agreed policy.
5. To identify training needs in discussion with your Line Manager and to attend training events and courses as required.
6. To observe any written policies, procedures and guidelines for good practice
7. Any other duties as required.

8. All employees should be aware that due to the nature of work Creative Support undertakes there is a requirement to support service users with daily living skills and individual activities which will include moving and handling and may involve supporting people with personal care needs.
9. In accordance with the Health and Social Care Act 2008, to actively participate in the prevention and control of infection within the capacity of the role. This will include adhering to the company's policies and procedures relating to COVID-19.
