JOB DESCRIPTION – SUPPORT COORDINATOR

Bury Intensive Support Service

Hours: 37.5 hours per week, to be worked flexibly to include evenings, weekends and bank holidays according to the needs of the service.

Responsible to: Service Manager, Area Manager and Service Director

About the Service:

The Intensive Support Service has been developed to provide a bespoke supported living services in the Bury/Heywood area of Greater Manchester to adults over the age of 18 with learning disabilities, autism and mental health needs and complex needs.

The service will operate 24/7 using a trauma informed and case management model of care to provide support and opportunities for increased independence in the community for three adults. We have developed the new and exciting role of Support Co-ordinator to provide support to the Service Manager and to enable a highly focussed Case Management Approach within the service.

The adults accepted into the service have been identified through the Transforming Care Agenda

Staff members recruited will initially be required to work dynamically between the Registered Office, service and current care provision to ensure service users experience a well-planned transition into their new home.

About You:

- Above all you will be warm, able to engage and approachable
- You are “hands on”
- You will be a great communicator both verbally and in writing
- You will have problem solving skills
- You will be confident
- You will be professional, responsible and accountable
- You will show low expressed emotion and be collaborative and emotionally resilient
- You will have a copious amount of compassion for service users and staff
- You will be an excellent team player

About Your Knowledge and Experience:

- You will have experience working with individuals with learning disabilities and autism
- You will understand the potential impact of behaviour upon staff
- You will have experience and understanding of risk assessment and review
- You will have good organisational and planning skills
- You will have excellent record keeping skills and understand the impact of poor record keeping
- You will understand the importance of care, compassion, communication, courage, competence and commitment

Summary of Role:

Creative Support is committed to high quality service delivery, excellent outcomes for service users, contract and CQC compliance and good practice in all services.

Your role will be to support the leadership of the staff team to deliver the highest standards of care and support, enabling service users to develop and enjoy wellbeing, quality of life, and community connections. You will promote and re-inforce a culture of responsive, person-centred practice and active support across the service. Strong working relationships will be built based on respect and unconditional positive regard. You will hold a Case Load of at least one of the three individuals living in the service with a clear focus upon co-ordinating all aspects of person-centred support and record keeping.

1. Create robust person-centred rotas, which meet the unique needs of the individuals we support and ensure staff are deployed effectively to meet those needs.
2. Ensuring excellent record keeping in areas such as: Assessment, Integrated Support Plans, Specific Health Plans, Positive Behaviour Support Plans, Person Centred Support Plans and Reviews and Risk Assessments.
3. To take part in the analysis of evidence gathered and to identify areas of learning and changes to practice, supporting staff to act on information and lessons learned ensuring actions required are followed through.
4. To provide direct coaching and development support to staff following observations of practice with service users in particular following events or incidents that have taken place.
5. To work collaboratively with staff members and the multi-disciplinary teams where improvement is required to support the completion of assessments, integrated support plans and other service user related paperwork to a high standard.
6. To be an ambassador for good practice and to promote innovative ways of working.

Support of Service Users:

- 1.1 Holding a Case Load of one and co-ordinating all aspects of support ensuring the highest quality.
- 1.2 Ensure that staff develop and sustain warm, trusting working relationships with service users and that staff promote their self-esteem, happiness and emotional health.
- 1.3 Ensure that staff encourage and support service users in expressing needs, views and concerns. Enable service users to make choices and decisions and to participate as fully as possible in planning and decision-making processes.
- 1.4 Ensure that staff respect and promote the rights and entitlements of people with learning disabilities and complex needs. Enable service users to participate as fully as possible in communities. Support service users to access sources of independent advocacy and advice.
- 1.5 Ensure that service users are supported in developing socially valued lifestyles, including culturally and age-appropriate experiences, building on strengths, interests and aspirations of service users. Enable people to access social, leisure, work and educational opportunities and to sustain an active programme of involvement in such activities.

- 1.6 Ensure that service users have person centred integrated support plans and to ensure that these are updated in partnership with service users, other professionals and family members.
- 1.7 Promote a warm, positive approach to the friends and families of service users. Involve families and partners in planning of support, in accordance with service user preferences.
- 1.8 Ensure that service users gain independence, confidence and competence. Achieve this through assistance, support, teaching, advice, role modelling, encouragement and positive feedback.
- 1.9 Coach staff in appropriate strategies and positive approaches specified by integrated support plans to support people who express frustrations and needs through challenging behaviour.
- 1.10 Support staff to follow behavioural guidelines to support individual needs and work with members of the multi-disciplinary team in the development and review of guidelines.
- 1.11 Ensure that service users receive advice, care and regular health checks to maintain their physical and mental wellbeing. Promote nutrition, relaxation, exercise and healthy lifestyle.
- 1.12 Observe and monitor service users' emotional and physical well-being and inform involved professionals of concerns or significant changes in their needs, behaviour and circumstances.
- 1.13 Ensure that emergencies and incidents are responded to promptly and appropriately within agency policy and reporting procedures.
- 1.14 Promote anti-discriminatory practice and ensure that services are responsive to the specific needs of female service users and service users from ethnic minorities.
- 1.15 Ensure that the needs of service users with additional problems, including physical health needs and disabilities, communication needs, and mental health problems, are fully identified, assessed, and responded to as appropriate.
- 1.16 Ensure that service users have regularly reviewed and evaluated Integrated Support Plans. Monitor their content, implementation, and effectiveness. Ensure that service users have a keyworker and co-worker, and act as keyworker as appropriate.
- 1.17 Ensure that service users receive appropriate and high-quality care and support to meet needs, drawn from external and internal services. Ensure that service users are effectively linked into care management mechanisms and have identified statutory Key Workers.

Staff Management:

- 1.18 Manage staff to ensure the highest levels of performance and standards of work are achieved.
- 1.19 Maintain a customer focused ethos and ensure excellent working relationships with other professionals and stakeholders.

1.20 Advise the line manager of any specifically identified training needs for staff.

Project Management and Administration:

1.21 Work with the Service Manager and Service Director ensure that the service meets the quality requirements and standards of Creative Support, commissioners, the CQC, the contract, and other stakeholders.

1.22 Encourage customer feedback and suggestions from service users, carers and stakeholders. Promote a positive attitude to complaints. Ensure that complaints are fully investigated following Creative Supports and the Local Authority procedures and that timely and appropriate action is carried out.

General Duties:

1.23 Promote Creative Support, its services and activities to service users, carers, other agencies and the general public and contribute to the wider business development and reputation of Creative Support.
