JOB DESCRIPTION – FEMALE MOVE ON ACTIVITIES WORKER

South Manchester Mental Health Services

Responsible to: Support Coordinator

Location: Wythenshawe and South Manchester area

Hours: Full Time (37.5 Hours) and Part Time (Minimum 16 Hours), hours will primarily be between 10 am – 6 pm but may vary based on the needs of the service.

The Role:

The Move On & Activities Support Worker for South Manchester mental health services primarily based in our Lone parent service in Wythenshawe, plays a key role in supporting people to move on successfully from supported or temporary accommodation into sustainable, independent housing, while promoting wellbeing, independence and meaningful community connection.

The role is strongly focused on active move on work, supporting individuals and households to explore all appropriate housing options, secure tenancies, and develop the skills and confidence that they have gained in the supported living setting and use this into more independence in the community . some transition support to enable people to settle successfully and sustain their homes may be beneficial to some tenants and families moving on.

Alongside housing-related support, the post holder will plan and deliver activities and community-based opportunities that reduce isolation, build confidence, encourage positive routines and support people to live fulfilling and connected lives.

The successful candidate will have a good understanding of homeless families work and have a good rapport with both parent and child albeit our role is not to work directly with children. The officer will have a good understanding of any safeguarding and duty of care issues. Full training will be provided.

Key attributes for the role:

- Strong understanding of housing and homeless sector
- Good understanding of the needs of homeless families
- Excellent planning and coproducing a range of activities with people we support both at the service and in community periodically.
- Good understanding and empathic approach to working with mental health needs
- Proactive and engaging approach
- Excellent case management skills
- Excellent advocacy both verbally and in writing

The role reflects Creative Support’s commitment to choice, opportunity and wellbeing, and all work must align with the WE CARE framework, ensuring people feel empowered, respected and supported to achieve positive outcomes.

The successful post holder will form part of the core rota at the service and have will undertake core duties to ensure with the team and local manager a smooth-running service.

Main Duties:

- Manage a caseload, working proactively to enable timely and sustainable move on into independent accommodation.
- Develop, implement and regularly review outcome-focused move on plans, prioritising housing readiness and tenancy sustainment.
- Support people to explore and access a range of housing options. This can be through housing association properties, private rented sector or opportunities through the local authority.
- Support people to make informed and realistic housing choices, including managing expectations around location, property type and affordability.
- Arrange and attend property viewings and provide practical support with tenancy sign-ups and move-ins.
- Explain tenancy agreements, tenant rights and responsibilities clearly and accessibly.
- Support applications for housing-related benefits and financial support, including: Universal credit, Rent deposits and Discretionary Housing Payments (DHPs)
- Provide practical support with budgeting, rent payments, utilities, council tax and other housing-related bills.
- Support people with practical aspects of moving, furnishing their home and setting up utilities.
- Identify risks to tenancies early and provide targeted interventions to prevent tenancy breakdown or homelessness.
- Work collaboratively with landlords, housing providers, local authorities and partner agencies to achieve positive move on outcomes.
- Maintain accurate, timely and confidential records in line with Creative Support policies and systems.

Activities, Wellbeing & Community Engagement:

You will:

- Plan and deliver meaningful activities, groups and community-based opportunities that promote wellbeing, independence and social inclusion.
- Encourage engagement in hobbies, learning, volunteering, employment preparation and local community life.
- Ensure all activities are person-centred, strengths-based, inclusive and informed by people’s interests and goals.
- Complete appropriate risk assessments and support plans linked to activities and outcomes.
- Support people to build, maintain or re-establish relationships with family, friends and social networks.
- Promote positive routines, confidence and emotional wellbeing through activity and structure.

Working With Others:

You will:

- Work collaboratively with colleagues, managers and multi-disciplinary professionals.
