JOB DESCRIPTION – SOCIAL VALUE OFFICER

Head Office, Stockport

Accountable To: Senior Service Development Officer

The Role:

Working as part of our dynamic Social Value Team you will be involved in a range of initiatives that not only develop and aid mobilisation of new services but also add value to our services and local communities. You will be based at our friendly Stockport Head Office (with regular travel as required) and will learn and develop your knowledge in the sector by obtaining valuable opportunities through a variety of roles. This is a multifaceted, varied position within the organisation which will support delivery of services and mobilisations, development and social value commitments. You will do this by working with a wide variety of internal and external partners with whom you will be proactive in developing links with local communities, our services and teams.

As a busy and dynamic national charity with a track record of providing high-quality, person-centred services in over 70 local authorities, we are seeking an individual who is proactive and passionate about delivering social value and developing quality services for the people we support.

Main Duties:

1. Organise and deliver social value initiatives that have been identified by the Senior Service Development Officer
2. Identify opportunities to increase our social value delivery in areas where we provide services
3. Monitor, record and report our social value delivery for internal and external stakeholders
4. Maintain awareness of contractual social value requirements
5. Deliver presentations and workshops to small groups (approx. 10 people per group)
6. Help local services to deliver contractual social value requirements
7. Organise and attend regular progress meetings with services
8. Support the rest of the Social Value Team where required with Placements and Volunteering
9. Support volunteering and fundraising initiatives
10. Work with other departments within Head Office to embed social value within the organisation (e.g. to increase spend in local supply chains)
11. Support services with local and national mental health and wellbeing campaigns (e.g. reducing social isolation)

General Duties:

1. Service Mobilisation & Recruitment – Support the setup of new services, assist with recruitment and help local managers develop and documents high-quality service provision.
2. Training & Systems – Co-ordinate training and implement systems to ensure all staff meet contractual training requirements.

All employees are subject to enhanced DBS checks

3. Community Mapping & Partnerships – Build knowledge of local resources, maintain up-to-date area mapping, and develop joint initiatives with partners to add value and promote community contribution.
4. Promotion & Profile Building – Raise Creative Support's regional profile by promoting services, events, and positive outcomes, and linking with the marketing team on wider engagement initiatives.
5. Feedback, Inclusion & Development – Gather service user feedback to shape improvements, promote access to community activities, and design and deliver workshops aligned to business needs.

Other Duties:

1. To accept regular support and supervision from the line manager.
2. To carry out all work in a manner consistent with the aims and principles of Creative Support
3. To maintain confidentiality at all times, in accordance with the agreed policy
4. To identify own training needs in discussion with line manager and to attend training/courses
5. To observe written policies, procedures and guidelines agreed by Creative Support
6. To undertake travel across England as required and work flexibly to meet deadlines
7. Any other duties as required
