JOB DESCRIPTION – FINANCE ASSISTANT (ALLOCATIONS)

Finance Department, Head Office

Hours: Full time, 37.5 hours per week - Monday to Friday between 09:00 and 17:00. To be worked flexibly according to the needs of the organisation & department. Part time contracts will be considered with a minimum of 24 hours per week, worked over 4 or 5 days

Responsible To: Finance Data Manager

The Role:

As part of the allocations team, the Finance Assistant will analyse and record banking receipts to ensure that they are correctly identified, posted and allocated on the accounting system, and supporting documentation is provided. The post holder will work closely across the teams within the finance department including billing and credit control. This will include an extensive use of Excel in order to interrogate data and effectively identify any issues, and implement solutions to those issues, as well as work on customer portals

Main Duties

1. To analyse, post and allocate all banking receipts on a daily basis.
2. To identify any receipts requiring investigation or further analysis to ensure that all receipts are accurately recorded and allocated.
3. To develop and follow processes to manage receipts paid in advance, or receipts from Local Authorities based on automated payment systems.
4. To follow specific Action Plans to manage sales ledger accounts that operate on non-standardised methods.
5. To support senior officers with allocations on complex sales ledger accounts.
6. To work closely with the Billing team to identify any data issues that impact on the accuracy of allocations
7. To work closely with the credit control team to provide support in analysing and updating accounts where receipts have been incorrectly coded.
8. To work with the Finance Data team in maintaining spreadsheets to monitor customer portals
9. To support the team in meetings with stakeholders to escalate issues around billing and allocations.
10. To engage positively with new billing and payment systems, including on-line portals, and to follow agreed processes for the use of these systems.
11. To be responsible for other coding and data entry in the accounting system, depending on the needs of the department
12. To provide cover for absent colleagues as and when required.
